

Notice

re: Public Access to Bankruptcy Case Information

All documents filed with this court are public records. These records may be seen and copied by any person, unless otherwise ordered by the court. All dockets and filed documents are available for public access at the courthouse in paper or electronic form. Case and docket information and some electronic images of documents may be available on this court's Internet website at www.oknb.uscourts.gov and through the PACER Internet website (a system for public access to electronic court records) at pacer.oknb.uscourts.gov. Information obtained from paper or electronic files could be used for any purpose including purposes unrelated to bankruptcy cases.

All parties to a bankruptcy should be informed of this policy.